vers 1

Walls of a classroom painted in white

She's in the front

He's in the back

Staying awake in the mist of the light

Watching her face

But she never looks back

Watching her lips as she talks, making a call

Watching her hips as she walks, 'way down the hall

Ref 1

You better

Concentrate now...

Concentrate now...

Big business, making the day

When she's so far away

vers 2

Desk at the office hidden in grey

She's wearing red,

He's turning black

Keeping an eye on the screen of today

Making a smile

But she never smiles back

Watching her lips as she talks, closing a deal

Watching her hips as she walks, making you feel

Ref 2

You'd better

Concentrate now...

Concentrate now...

Big business, making the day

When she's so far away

stick

Big deal

What you make of your life

Carry the dream of a woman and wife

Ask for the children at the officer's desk

When you're

Down

Town

Making big business.....

vers3

Stuck by the fire all wrapped in felt

His hair has turned white

But her is still black

Counting his coins as the dreams seems to melt

Making a call

But she never calls back

Wanting her lips as she talks, charming us all

Longing her hips as she walks, down the hall

Ref 3

You better

Concentrate now...

Concentrate now...

Big business, making the day

When she's so far away...

Big business, big business...
