

The Pearl

Andy's been busy
Farming oysters through the years
Living by the Ocean
Mermaids song in ears
Strolling in the water
With oysters in his hands
Brown legs and barefoot
Among the stones and sand

Cold winds blowing
Grey clouds all across the sky
Heavy rains been falling
As days and years went by
Sometimes sunny
With a calm and clear blue sea
Warm and gentle winds
Made him feel that free

But always there
In the back of his mind
The hope and the faith
The one of a kind
The dream of the pearl
The dream of his heart
The dream of the pearl
And one day, one day

Then one day it happens
After a lifetime in strive
The pearl just lies there
In his open hand
Perfect in shape
Looking almost alive
He's leaving the water
Sits down in the sand

Once in a lifetime
His pearl getting kissed
Holding it tight to his chest
So much that he missed
A lifetime of dreaming
How he wanted it to be
He looks at the pearl and
Throws it back to sea
